

Data Protection Notice – For Clients, Landlords, Tenants, Suppliers, Contractors, Business Contacts and Potential Clients

1. Who We Are

We are Laws & Fiennes LLP (Laws & Fiennes). We are an independent partnership offering rural estate management and associated professional work. We are regulated by the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors - Firm number 849177.

We promise:

To do our best to keep your data safe, in addition to respecting the privacy of clients and others.

Never to sell, swap or rent your data to third parties.

To give you ways to control the use of your data whenever we can.

2. We are a Data Controller

This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you and explaining it clearly to you. In some circumstances, we are a Joint Controller, meaning that the organisation who provides the data to us, or the organisation we share that data with will also be responsible for deciding how the personal data is held and used.

3. Data Protection Notice

This applies to all clients (including prospective and former clients along with employees and representatives of business clients) of Laws & Fiennes; current, former and prospective contacts for both individual and businesses; referrers; individuals who request information from us; tenants of clients; any person who provides services to Laws & Fiennes or the clients of Laws & Fiennes, either as an individual or as the employee or representative of a corporate service provider; third parties acting for our clients.

4. Notice Updates

We reserve the right to update this notice at any time. We will notify you of any substantial updates. Should there need to be any additional processing or personal data, we will notify you separately.

8. Special Category Personal Data

We do not collect or process information relating to special category personal data as part of our day to day work (e.g. sex life, ethnicity, religion, political opinions, health, trade union membership etc).

Such information may become necessary in order to comply with our legal obligations (such as Health and Safety, Money Laundering Regulations or Equality Act claims). Where it does, such personal data will only be collected, processed and retained for such specific purposes.

9. Childrens’ Information

Our services are directed at adults. The only reason we would collect and process personal information relating to a child were if it was a legal requirement. If you suspect we hold or process any information relating to children under the age of 13, please notify us.

10. Lawful Basis for Processing

The majority of the processing of personal data we carry out is on a contractual basis, in order to fulfil our contracts with our clients to maintain property, carry out surveying work, for the purpose of acquisitions or project management.

We will process the data of potential suppliers on the basis of legitimate interests, in order to potentially enter into a contract for supply of goods or services. This may include personal data such as names, telephone numbers and email addressed.

Occasionally, we will process personal data in accordance with our legal obligations. This may include special category personal data as detailed above. Where we do so, it may be without your knowledge or consent as required or permitted by law.

11. The Legitimate Interests for the Processing

Processing on the basis of legitimate interest is purely in order to potentially enter into a contract for supply of goods or services.

12. The Recipients or Categories of Recipients of the Personal Data

We do not sell or rent personal data to third parties. We do not share personal data for marketing purposes.

We do pass on personal data, such as name, address and contact number, to third party suppliers as necessary to fulfil our contractual obligations.

For the purpose of fulfilling our legal obligations, we will pass on personal data to Government Agencies, or our legal advisors as required.
